Hi Ryan,

Due to unforeseen circumstances, that you

- 1) You have not returned your contract in the time given.
- 2) You do not have a live show on the LNM Radio Network.

We will have no choice but to remove you from the network. You have promised to go live with us in the 12am-3am est slot and all we are playing, are replays from the fringe fm without branding.

We are moving forward for the future and we are sorry to say you have decided not to participate in the team effort to raise the bar of the network and your show. Currently we are entertaining moving to the Nielsen rating system and that cannot happen with pre-recorded/replayed shows and this includes network/show advertising and sponsorship. You are an asset either way but we have to remove your show for those reasons only.

This has nothing to do with any show/host coming to the network but censorship of self. This is strictly a business move only.

We wish you the best in your success in radio and in all future endeavours.

Hi Ryan,

Due to unforeseen circumstances, that you

Sounds like you need the slot for Heather now...and if that's the case, this is even more wrong, unprofessional and irresponsible!

- 1) You have not returned your contract in the time given...

I have not had a chance to do this, and it had slipped my mind. But, I have been here essentially since the beginning and now there is an issue.

- 2) You do not have a live show on the LNM Radio Network.

See attached picture where you guys say its okay to play prerecorded. I made it very clear that ill not be live anywhere because of my living situation. So I prerecord new every day for the fringe and you and then send you the file like you told me was okay! (We will have no choice but to remove you from the network. You have promised to go live with us in the 12am-3am est slot and all we are playing, are replays from the fringe fm without branding.)

We are moving forward for the future and we are sorry to say you have decided not to participate (that's not true, at all, I've busted my ass every day to get shows done and with the best quality to "raise the bar" because i know my show is one of the top shows of this genre, I've seen the numbers not just application time slots) in the team effort to raise the bar of the network and your show. Currently we are entertaining moving to the Nielsen rating system and that cannot happen with pre-recorded/replayed shows and this includes network/show advertising and sponsorship. You are an asset either way but we have to remove your show for those reasons only.

This has nothing to do with any show/host coming to the network but censorship of self. This is strictly a business move only.

We wish you the best in your success in radio and in all future endeavours.

I informed Katie & Darrell that I wanted a live show in the 12am slot and that is what I was told you would be doing. We have not had a live show there and listeners are complaining so you was not able to commit to a live show so we have to do what is best for the network. If would appear your the feature host on the Fringe so maybe it is a lot on your plate. We can always do a rerun in the later hours but not the 12 am slot.

Okay, first off, thank you for responding cordially. Second, you were told wrong. They told me it was perfectly fine to run NEW shows prerecorded in that slot, Michael, and I never told them I would/could do that anywhere, including Fringe, because im having to move. Secondly they said im removed from the network entirely, not just the slot... which i have suspicion is of Heather Wade now, maybe I'm wrong, which is a big mistake, but that's my view....however, if there is another slot, that's actually okay, but it would be nice having five nights a week because that is what I am airing now. I don't understand the excuses from them and the extreme and obvious miscommunication with you from them... that is unprofessional and wrong.

Im not at all mad at you, but you were misinformed and I hope, and would like, this to be remedied. Thank you.

Well I know when we was all on the phone you said you was moving to the East Coast and going to go live but outside of that we have to have live shows in most of these slots because I I am trying to not depend on listeners anymore to fund us because I like a roof over my head. Heather has nothing to do with this and she never left the network, she had legal stuff to contend with and we could not talk about it. You can work out with Katie & Darrell what will be open for recorded shows but as of now we are looking to fill with live shows in that slot. I have a show to get ready for so I can not go back and fourth. Ryan it is nothing personal it is just business. We have stations picking us up in some of the slots and live is a must.

Michael, i want to clear a few things up, and out of mutual respect, form my point of view this is important for you. The Neelys are lying to you directly or are so lost they are saying random things. I got an email from another host telling me the Neelys told them I have advertisers and to contact me about this... I don't. They told you I would go live, but I have our conversation on skype and know that when we talked on the phone I made it clear that moving to the east coast prevented me from going live at all, anywhere. So you said it was okay to air pre-recorded shows, and they agreed several times after telling me you were totally against it, which even after your second to last email you said its okay to put the show in another slot. Again, not what they told me. I think they are dismantling LNM and profiting from it in a way that might help you now, but will possibly hurt you in the long run. That's my view and as a friend I'm sharing my views with you at the threat of causing trouble. The neelys bad mouthed Heather to me, and you even said on air that she was no longer with the network and to stop messaging you about her. Now she never left? That seems odd... The Neelys refused to communicate with me over the open slot when she was there, until she vanished and they harassed me to take the slot, which I did, and now she is back, and I'm gone, according to them, despite you saying that I can still air my show here.

This tells me they are playing games, manipulating, and outright, based on screenshots and conversations I've had, lying to you and are unable to keep information straight.

That concerns me about you, Ira and LNM, plus myself since I have no desire to leave, nor did I refuse to participate on the network like they claimed. I think maybe you and I should talk privately buddy.

Cheers,

Ryan I heard you out now let me address a few things with you.
(The Neelys are lying to you)
No they are not lying to me, they are doing their jobs. You said that you could not handle the late hours with the Fringe because of the time zone and you wanted to go live on LNM once you moved and that is no lie because I heard it with my own ears, we agreed to do recorded until you could go live however you never went live and you have put the fringe fm first not even giving us a shout on your fakebook post as you can see in attached.
(I got an email from another host) Then why don't that host get some balls and contact me then ? I do not do he said she said BS.
(I think they are dismantling LNM and profiting from it in a way that might help you now, but will possibly hurt you in the long run)
Wrong, for to long I allowed people to take a free ride on my dime and we all deserve to make a living from the work we do and that includes you with books,subscriptions ect ect.
(The neelys bad mouthed Heather to me, and you even said on air that she was no longer with the network)
We was not giving anyone info unless they had to have it, there are two sides to every story and as far as Heather goes I have the full story and she did what she had to do.
Heather and I have no issues and we said what we had to say because of leakers. in the circle. I also see your messages blaming Heather, Heather did nothing to you and your on the fringe, so why so hateful of her ? Heather & Ira is between Heather & Ira as far as I am concerned.
(despite you saying that I can still air my show here)
I said we could still run a recorded in another slot but that was before you started bashing the program directors and one of our hosts lol Ryan I am sorry but I need peace and harmony on this network not trouble and you work for the Fringe like all you post and FB says. I think we are done here, I have nothing more to say and I wish you the best.
I stand by my program directors as I should. Katie & Darrell have done nothing but great things for LNM and I am happy to have them both.
I am not your enemy and I think you can really go places but you need to clean up your cursing and follow rules man cause no matter who you go to you will have rules.
The contract was never sent in also so this is not anyone's fault but your own. I simply need a live show in that slot period and that is all their is to it so don't make it such a big conspiracy against you because it's not.
Good luck Ryan sorry you could not work with us.

Im very surprised and don't know what to say except to correct the out of context information, including me changing the facebook to "fringe" after what the Neelys told me yesterday. Before, it was only LNM. The promos on facebook have also been made for LNM, when the show reairs. I have those and the proof of what the Neelys told me. Im also in full remembrance of what we all talked about, that I could never go live anywhere because I was moving. Michael, they did lie to you and I proved that to you in my first message! Your 'evidence' which im half sure they set up for you, is circumstantial and proves i promoted for my show on their network, and then the images that are not presented include the promos i sent out for LNM including the verbal ones I give on air! And what cursing are you talking about? I haven't said more than ass on my show nor have i said anything of the sort otherwise recently. To a degree I get where you are coming from, but im telling you from a different perspective that there is a dark shadow over LNM, and its really sad having been apart of it for so long. People like myself and Ira just thrown aside like nothing. I offered my show to you guys even after they never responded to my offer until Heather disappeared and they wanted my show there. Then they begged me literally, I have pics of this too, and then when she returns Im dumped, the lie and say im gone, even though you said its cool for me to play my show..... Huge miscommunication. Im doing this for integrity and honor, not money, or anything like that. But if you don't want to even air my show now, I find that wrong and insulting. The Neelys lied to you, and I proved it to you in the attached image. I sincerely hope you do well, but also that you realize this about what I can prove. Not speculate.

Yes, I said what I said to Heather because she is literally the worst host I have ever heard - my opinion - and she provides no substance even if she makes money. Money is not my goal - just honesty.

Good luck. And as a friend, you should get more informed about what they are doing - as you yourself said you are unaware of a lot of the stuff going on with Heather, for example.

In that slot you get all her listeners 😊

Darrell, 9:12 AM

I called her a dead stick in the water yesterday and thought only of you 😊

Brad said he wants to see you on top of the charts 😊

So I told him my secret idea and now I have the power to make shit happen 😊

9:18 AM

Well there are a couple things we can do here. So, i had asked Michael if he wanted me for that slot 5 nights a week. He said he was holding onto it at the moment. Which was cool. So on FringeFM, Joseph said the same thing, because 9-12 was his slot. So i took the Richard Hoagland C2C slot from 12-3am LIVE m-f on the FringeFM. The reairs, as you know, were going to air on LNM Sat, Sun, Wed. We could do one of two things, catch the stream at 12-3am for LNM... or play my show five nights in that slot on LNM from 9-12, all new stuff, but it would be prerecorded - not that most people can tell the difference half the time haha ----- What would you like to do ? If that all makes sense...im sure it does.

Darrell, 9:21 AM

Well heres the thing, Michael does not want syndication from the fringe fm.... you can syndicate from LNM but not the other way around. We are in the process of changing all shows on the network to be live only. 😊

9:22 AM

Well that's what i said..so if you dont want prerecorded, plug the show in 12-3am... Live then its live and "syndicated" per say on both networks and my personal TSL stream

Darrell, 9:22 AM

We were waiting for heathers slot to open for you for 5 days a week, are you willing to let go of Michaels numbers plus syndication, plus heathers numbers? 😊

Darrell & Katie (LNM Call in Line) Neely

● ONLINE = LIVE RADIO- ON AIR | 🖼️ Gallery

We need you live on LNM not on fringe fm to access the numbers..... 😊

9:24 AM

What do you mean, let go? All i was saying is stream me LIVE on LNM 12-3am, there is nothing else in that slot really anywhere in the radio world, per say, and then it would just syndicate with whoever wanted it.

Darrell, 9:24 AM

Yes these numbers are huge 😊

the question is, what network is your home? 😊

9:25 AM

I don't have one, im doing my speaker stream now. So whoever wants it, can just link to speaker

9:30 AM

I've never been paid for anything, minus my subscriptions and a few books here and there.

I have been thinking, and i offered that to Michael before, he wasn't able to give it to me. So why can't we do 12-3am LIVE?

that is a huge slot too, totally unique in terms of shows airing at that time.

Did Ira know you were going to the FringeFM? 😊

9:44 AM

Michael and Ira both knew that I was offering five nights a week on Heather's slot, and that Michael was instead at the moment holding it open.

Joseph gave me 12-3 since his show was 9-12.... so i can do 12-3am LNM Live from speaker

thats my speaker not Fringe

● ONLINE = LIVE RADIO- ON AIR | Gallery

OK, so here is the issue. I'm not sure how much longer I will be on the Pacific coast. The reason I can't do the fringe midnight to three is because it is too much, but in my current situation I'm going to have to come to the East Coast, meaning that nine to midnight will become midnight to three again, ha ha, which is pretty ironic.

So that leaves me with a couple of options. Go live on Lnm at the 9 PM slot but I'll have to re-air my show on the fringe in the middle of the day. Or go pre-recorded on Fringe at midnight and a rebroadcast on Lnm.

Darrell, 2:07 PM

lol 😊

2:08 PM

Going live on your network though, will only last until I have to move to the East Coast and then I will have to have it pre-record it again, because nine will become midnight.

Hi Guys,

First off we would like to thank Ira Robinson for all the work he has done for the Management of LNM Radio Network and wish him all the success for the future. Firstly, for clarification for all hosts, Ira's step-down does not affect the inner workings of the network. Ira is very much a part of the network, but holds no responsibility to the management of LNM. His position will be as a host, and consultant as we transition. Darrell and Katie Neely, have been announced as Program Directors/Station Managers of LNM, and all communication concerning "radio" (as previously sent to Ira), must now be sent to "The Neely's" or if we don't answer for any reason - Michael directly. Michael is also part of management and all hosts on the network should not discount him from communication as well. If there is a problem or concern you have more than one person to go to. Ira, is not a source of insider information.

Secondly, regarding Heather, we have had absolutely no communications from her since the 9th of July. Please disregard, false rumors or replying to speculative opinions as to her whereabouts on social media. Trolls are doing what trolls are going to do, but please have no part in that "listener" conversation. Your job as hosts is to uphold, LNM Radio Network at all times in positive light. Many others involved, not just LNM in this situation as also becoming exhausted, as no communication will lead to moving on with business and resuming without her.

Thirdly, sadly, the LNM show Paranormal Analytical has left the network, for their own reasons, due to their hectic schedules that they have in film/TV. We wish them the best in their endeavors and success for their future.

So now that's said I have a few things of importance regarding changes to go through... please read as this effects everyone (whether you already know this information or not):

1. Each host on the network, will soon be required to sign an agreement with us for your show. Every agreement given to the hosts will be confidential, and must be returned to us. It is a simple agreement outlining your responsibilities to the network, your show and compliance with FCC. LNM Radio Network, is a business, and is no different to any other station out there doing the same thing. These agreements, will be sent out shortly via email and must be read, returned via email and electronically signed by the 6th of August 2018. If you have a problem or concern with this, please communicate with us first.

2. Michael recently announced that there will be a cost involved now for hosting hosts and their shows on the network, for shows that cost will be $30mth, which must be paid, immediately on the 1st of each month or within the first 7 days of each month. We have had to put a cost, as running the network is rising and this platform with the inclusion of the SESAC license and services to hosts are increasing. Extra features that allow each host to have a great show, are now no longer free and we will not be giving free rides for people who want to misuse the radio platform for their own benefits. Please keep in mind we (Michael, Ira and the Neely's) have been footing the cost of maintaining any outstanding balance of all this (with or without listener donations, which have been at an all-time low in the last 5mths) and at large, are out of pocket expenses paid by those helping you to provide and be on a presently free platform. I will remind you do also get to broadcast to one of the largest audiences on the net and keep in mind other networks or Stations charge much much more and you get less for your money. The network does not profit from anything, but we hope so to in the future. If you have a problem or concern with this please communicate with us first.

3. After months of preparation from our team LNM Radio- Studio B is finally due to launch on Monday, August 6th 2018! Studio B is an entirely new LNM schedule, broadcasting 24/7 and in absolute no way is it in competition with Studio A's programming. Our main aims are to entertain and inform; bringing you the latest news and information in fun and exciting ways. Over the coming week we will be announcing the schedule along with the hosts that come with the shows and it will be giving you the chance to get to know more about them and what you can expect from the various shows that LNM Radio has to offer. Please make these hosts feel welcome, we are all a family at LNM and we would wish no different from those new hosts coming into the network. The addition of the new studio, will amount to having over 40 shows overall and well over 40 hosts. We expect there may be a few minor issues in the beginning of studio B but please be patient with the transition. The LNM Radio Launch Show for Studio B, will pave the way for the year to come and we hope you can join in on the celebrations with us. Listen live or at any time on the LNM website directly lnmradionetwork.com and keep up to date with all the latest by following us on social media and listening out for the announcement/changes to come. If you have any queries just send us an email to mv@latenightinthemidlands.com or contact the Neely's directly at publishing@neelyproductionsinc.com The LNM Radio Network is growing, so many grand changes are coming!

4. A friendly reminder about hosts responsibilities for their own shows: You are required (and this is a must) to promote and market your own shows on social media and other platforms associated (ie. Websites). It is not the LNM Networks job to promote your show, inclusive of promos. We will allow you to use services which will be newly available to ALL host on the network to utilize, to help you spread the shows directly from the network itself. There should be no excuse, as to why you cannot promote your show.

5. A BRAND NEW WEBSITE IS COMING!!!! So, as the launch and transition of LNM Radio happens we will be launching a brand new lnmradionetwork.com website. The brand new services offered to hosts will be the allowance to post your shows (in blog form) in our news sections directly on the website, which will allow you to promote/share your shows via our website. We are in the process of setting this all up. All hosts will get mod accounts so you can blog your article write ups. You will also be able to archive your selected or all shows on the network website, however, you will need to send Katie Neely, the archived recording along with the promo image of your choosing (optional) to place on the website once your show is edited and complete. It is the hosts responsibility to edit their shows, prior, it is not the job of LNM to edit your shows at all, we expect your show to be ready to go. To ensure your show is played the next day you must to send you show to us.

6. It is suggested that you produce your own show, which we can train you to do. However, it is up to you to obtain your equipment, LNM will not be responsible for the costs to set this up. If you need a producer/audio engineer a small charge (extremely cheap) per month will ensue. We are currently training a couple producers to come on board the LNM team to help with this. As previously stated, we are no longer offering free services. The responsibilities and individual requirements of all hosts, will be detailed, as per individual agreements for each host/show.

7. SPONSORSHIP & ADVERTISING! As we are a growing network, we are currently in the process of obtaining new sponsorship for the LNM network. This is the very reason why agreements need to be in place, due to the nature of business partnerships that take place. All hosts on the network are responsible of obtaining their own sponsors, if wanted for their own shows, but if you are obtaining sponsorship for solely for your show, you must let us know, so that agreements can be done, to protect the network and the hosts/shows. If you have a problem or concern or simply want to know more about this, please communicate with us first.

8. SHOW TIME DURATION: As you all know, in a recently, in an email sent out by Ira, he gave explanation to show times and the duration length required for each show. IE. if you have a show duration slot of 2 hrs., your show must finish at 5 mins to the hour. Many hosts, have not complied with this and currently at present, we will be setting things up to ensure this happens. There will be NO, overtime allowance, even for 1 min. If you have not finished up your show by, for example... 5 mins to the hour, you will be cut off of the broadcast. It is suggested that the last 5 mins of each of your shows is laid out for "end of show" close out inclusive of the allowance for outro music. If you require overtime, in the circumstance that, there is no live show after you, you must let us know well in advance, and not on the day of show. You can request this via email or simple message/call via skype/phone. We will leave the responsibly of each host to ensure that you start and finish on time. We understand you may encounter tech difficulties, but when this happens, please contact us (Michael, Katie or Darrell) so that we know or so that we can help you.

9. SPOOK-A-THON!!! We will be organizing the upcoming spook-a-thon very soon, participation by all hosts is appreciated. Please let us know when you will be available and at what time slot. Ira Robinson is the organizer and this event will be a proposed 72hr. (2-3hrs per show, depending on participation) LIVE event. It's always a lot of fun and the interactions with each other and the listeners is fantastic. We'd love for as many of our hosts/shows as possible to join in with this type of thing. It's appreciated if you can participate and will only work to expose you guys to a lot more listeners than you normally get in the slots you are in. A different set of ears and all that jazz is a grandiose showcase of everyone on the network. We'll announce very soon when the next one will be and start taking down the slots everyone is interested in, however if you have a choice of slot outside the prime time slot available please let us know asap or discuss with us what works for you.

10. Please Remember to keep pushing for people to come to the site to donate to the network. We've fallen short over the past couple of months and that's really painful, to say the least. Maybe make mention of it a couple times during your show or during commercial break. What we recommend is doing it once per hour. Maybe something along the lines of: "Remember, LNM Radio Network is listener supported. Please help us by donating to LNM Radio Network by going to lnmradionetwork.com and hitting the Donate button!" Would be great, hosts are still not doing it, so please this is a must from everyone on the network. It is also a priority to direct listeners to the network website. A list of affiliates will also be featured on the new website for all hosts to access, and you can announce them on your shows for listeners.

11. As a friendly reminder, PLEASE, there is to be no bad language on the shows. Again, we're being picked up by FCC-regulated stations and even things as simple as saying "Shit" or "Bull shit" will get us, as well as the stations that are picking us up, fined. It also means we will be dropped from them QUICKLY. We're not censoring the content. You can still talk about whatever you want. But we can NOT have it on the station... FULL STOP! Always remind your guests before the show they've got to curb themselves, and if they start using that kinda thing on the show, you gotta drop them. We don't care if they are the greatest and biggest guest in the world, give them a warning and if they keep it up, drop them. We know guests have their own minds and ways, and they're going to say things beyond your control when live, but drop them fast if they keep it up. Under NO circumstances should F-Bombs EVER be used by the hosts. EVER. Passion is one thing. But you guys know better. We've all got to start doing better. We don't want to be hard asses about it, but we've got to do what we've got to do for the sake of the station.

This is not targeted at anyone specifically, just making sure everyone understands.

12. CLARIFICATION: Those current hosts, on the network, you are on Studio A, after the 6th August 2018, those new upcoming shows will be on studio B..... just so we don't all get confused! At random times during open slots on either studios, we will play all shows on each studio to obtain a wider audience for all shows.

13. Communication is a must from all of you. Please voice any concerns or issues. If we do not know about them, we cannot try to fix problems that may arise. Again LNM Radio is growing, and it is the responsibility of the LNM Management to ensure that things run smoothly for all.

14. LNM Chatroom: It is suggested for all hosts to make use of the discord chatroom. We have a lot of listeners that utilize it, so it is encouraged for hosts to participate to interact with their "fans". We have currently removed the listen/live stream from the chatroom, so listeners will need to go to the LNM website to listen to the broadcast. We made this change so that studio A and studio B was not conflicting with each other. Listeners will now have a choice to listen to Studio A or B respectively. Each show will get a replay on each studio to help expand their audience at appropriate times.

And finally we'd also like to put out there that if you guys have suggestions to improve the network or to make things around here even better, please don't hesitate to let us know your thoughts. We're always open to improvement and your feedback is absolutely essential to us. That's about it for now guys. We appreciate your attention to all of this and, again, thank you for all the hard work you guys do to make this place the great one it is.

One final note... If you guys have radio stations in your local area (and you probably do!), you might think about calling and offering for them to pick up your show (or the whole network for that matter). Just an idea to give you guys more exposure. You never know unless you try!

Thanks again! We hope the new growth benefits everyone for the future for a BIGGER, BADDER, AWESOME Network. It is a privileged to be on such a fast growing network, not a right. We look forward to working with you as we progress the network into a new era! Please look out via email over the coming days for your individual contracts.

Again any questions regarding this email, can be replied back to Katie and Darrell or to Michael via email.
Please do not email replies back to Ira Robinson for any network issue.

LNM RADIO IS KING OF THE HILL

Posted on JULY 6, 2018 Written by drjradio

The LNM Radio Network has turned heads of late with the signing of the over night smash hit radio program created & once hosted by radio hall of famer Art Bell (The Kingdom of Nye) with current host, the very talented Heather Wade.

The LNM Radio Network is the most listened to network in the land making it the number one network in the land. With other smash hits shows such as The Secret Teachings, Brothers at Arm's, Paraversal Universe the flag ship show hosted by Michael Vara (Late Night in the Midlands) and many many more great shows.

Advertisers would be wise to jump on this fast moving train and get a piece of the far reach of the LNM Radio Network, heard in over 110 countries and many AM & FM stations in the US & Canada.

Darrell Neely Sr. Ryan... to respond to this.. and it is me Darrell Neely Sr. so that you will know .. OK... anything you gotta say... I still fought for you in the end of the broadcast and this is what I get... Damn you dont choose your friends well because I meant it when I said that I love my Ryan... it is not my decision... and i still tried to fight for you and now you come out like this... Damn Man...and Ryan... why sling at me .. this truly hurts... I am doing what i do which is marketing and honestly, you are making more out of this than necessary. It does not look good and it looks lacking because we all said we would get PhD. that day and you were in the skype too... Ryan all you had to do was talk to me and I would have cleared up a great percentage of this but you went on your trail of bread crumbs and see what happens. Come on man, I still fight for you and you do this and drag me in... I must be a fool to have so much love and respect for you ... shit, I never missed your shows for the longest times and worried about you when things got tough but you did this to me ... can you see you got used by someone or you got misleading info.... dont you see that you are in a fight for pride and you, your self, spoke on that topic in one of your past shows... Stop it brother, I am getting worried about you and I am here still to talk to you. If you said the contract slipped your mind, then I would believe you but you and I both know that with the networks end goal, the shows have to be live. You must know that the change that is happening is not what I want but I tried to help and now you tried to drag me into it... I am not into playing like school kids and not here to slap and slander. Say what you want about me, my dog, my life... I dont really care at all because no one can hurt me like you are doing now and you were my go to man for knowledge and enlightenment ... Ryan, this is really hurting because it is you that reminded me of the deeper learning personality of my own belated son. Damn Man, i never thought it would ever have been you to have been used for another's game.

Hi Guys,

As you all know the saying, many hands make light work, Derrick Whiteskycloud, the host of Between2Worlds on Tuesday nights 2am, has sent me a message to forward onto all hosts on the network.

Derrick is offering his experience to do voice overs (show promo) and show banners. We want to make sure every show on the network stands out with their promos, so if you should require the services of Derrick, just email him with the details and he will be more than happy to help you out.

Derricks Message:

I am offering the services of show banners and voice overs...if anyone from the LNM Radio Network radio program would like an upgrade please let me know... whiteskycloud@yahoo.com

With that said, if you have services that can be utilized on the network and you can volunteer your time, please let us know. This includes, suggestions to show improvements, music ideas, promos, social media sharing, and audio engineering/production etc.... Please Remember ALL of the hosts on the LNM Radio Network, are a family, each with exceptional talents and we are all growing at the same time. If we can work together as a team, we will all benefit from the growth and changes that are happening at present. If you have an article that you want placed on the network website or a promo write up, send it to me with all links and images you want in it and I can post it. Im in the process of organizing user accounts so that you can post it yourselves, but for now, forward any article to me and if you havent done a show ad (30-60 audio ad), you might want to do that so we can include it in ad breaks on all shows. We always cross promote other shows on shows, but if you havent got one, you are currently missing out on utilizing the advertising of your show.

YES! We are preparing you for some BIG shows that are coming to the network, which has the potential and possibility to bring a minimum of 2 millions listeners (which means bare with us as we make HUGE changes to our servers to accommodate). We won't release the info regarding the shows just, yet but keep watch announcements are coming over the next 3-4 weeks, and YES we are looking into satellite syndication in the future but this does not come without a minimum $40k price tag per week (just to give you an estimate on how much it really costs).

Like I said, this is OUR TIME TO SHINE AS A SHOW AND A NETWORK!!

Remember you will all need to start working on your own media kits for your show (we have a guideline as to what you can include, in it so let us know if you need help) so that you can seek advertising/sponsorship for your own shows- when you get this your shows will only get bigger and better. We have already started seeking Network Advertisers/Sponsorship ourselves. The question is do you want your show to be the BEST, BIGGEST AND THE BADDEST. No one is in competition with shows on the network at all so please do not feel like this is the rat race between Studio A and B. We growing so that LNM Radio will no longer be a podcasting internet radio network, but a FULL FLEDGED Broadcasting Network.

I will state, that if you are seeking for advertisement and sponsorship, your shows must be consistently LIVE! Without it you may not get the chance to obtain a sponsorship deal.

Just a quick reminder... please return your contracts, if you haven't done so already.

And.... one last thing.... The current situation with skype... due to the forcing of updates of the NEW skype, the new skype will no longer be sufficient for broadcasting due to the settings on it which we cannot control. We are currently looking into other avenues ie. Zoom, along with talks with Michael to use the paid call in line that he utilizes. If you have any helpful suggestions to combat this issue, please let us know.

That's all for now, if you have any questions or concerns email or Skype or call us... We are always open for a discussion if help is needed. Dont ever feel that we aren't doing anything that does not include the growth of the network or your shows.

Kindest Regards,

Katie

Hey guys

For those who are concerned and flipping out over the mentioned costs in the contracts, please keep in mind that it does not effect everyone on the network.

Before, you think about cancelling your show please know, that the contract had to be sent out to everyone since, as the memo stated a couple of weeks ago, all individual requirements, inclusive on non-payment has been mentioned to those who are not paying, as per previous email!

Again apologies if you are confused.

If you have recieved this email just know you are NOT affected by production cost or monthly cost of having a show on the network, however this does not excuse you from signing the contract.

Hope that clarifies things.... we are not trying to get rid of people over money issues!
Please DO NOT send me threatening irate messages about it, we are all adults here.

Please contact me if you have any concerns

Only one person canceled since the release and two new people came in and subscribed so looks like not 2 many cared.Please enough of the reports because I do not care what anyone else is saying.

Emails from Dark Matter Radio Network before and after Art Bell... this is what happens behind the scenes: I was not allowed to continue on DMRN nor as a guest on Dave Schrader's MITD. Call it "burning a bridge" but it is the truth!

Since LNM Radio Network is being as shady as possible attacking my hosts let me show you how many listeners they currently have. If you want to pay them 30 bucks and a contract to be on their network...DO IT! Also being on a couple lower power FM stations doesn't mean you have millions of listeners. That's stupid logic. I already dealt with liars that say they have millions of listeners and they don't. And we no longer work together. Lying to listeners is just as bad as lying to your sponsors. It's bad business. We are working with terrestrial stations too but it doesn't mean there are millions of listeners. Anyone says that doesn't know their own market.

Joe Rupe The truth is most hosts just believe what the network owners tell them and have no idea how this stuff works. I'm telling you anyone can do this. So if your so sure you have millions of listeners have the timestamp the doc and show you. Not just say there's a magical sever somewhere with hidden numbers on it.

Hello, I think it is incredibly unprofessional what you all - those involved - are doing and acting like. Some more than others. You all know very well that Heather Wade left and when she was not coming back you put my show in her place, even after I had asked and was denied initially, due to her possible return, and as per multiple conversations there are details of our agreement to Pre-recorded shows. At one point I had thought about going live, and that changed, and I have a confirmation on Skype from the Neelys confirming this. Because of personal issues and my integrity I talked with Joe Rupe because when you told me I could not do the show in that spot live he gave me the opportunity while I could still air shows on LNM. You have absolutely nothing to be angry or upset about with me, and especially with him, that particularly is petty and immature on a new level. It's funny because Joe cut a promo for my show where he promoted his network and your network, and I promoted LNM on air and on Facebook. Also had issues with me continuing on LNM and yet was okay with it because he wanted me to air a show there. More information that is taken out of context with circumstantial evidence are the photos Michael sent me to prove that I did not participate in the network.

I have emails regarding Heather and how she has not contacted you, so I highly doubt that you were only attempting to hide this from listeners because you also sent that in private messages to hosts. Otherwise it's none of my business and I do not care. For the record, I do not care about having been removed but about the real reason why... I.E. Heather who I'm sure made a partial decision and also because of a lie about me going live. That was and is the only issue, and all of your commentary on the show addressing me Michael was childish and immature, especially when I have records of everything. You can build a straw-man to attack it, and play martyr, but those are distractions from the original issue. You can utilize the ad hominem in order to character assassinate, but the proof of the original issue, the only one I care about, remains. I have not and will not do that to any of you. I will not berate and make fun of.

Darrell said I even photoshopped those images of proof, that may be the wildest assertion yet. He said that live on the show and when I proved it further wrong with a full computer screenshot, he never acknowledged that.

Also, you do not have millions of listeners, nobody does, depending on what time frame you examine. Even Alex Jones peaks at about 8 million listeners total with every platform and affiliate over a certain amount of time. Clyde Lewis goes beyond those numbers by bringing in literally tens of thousands more in a single session then all of the other networks combined. You can distort the details, but those facts still remain.

As per your "sharing phone numbers" - I had no intention to do that. Accidental and unintended, but I did remove that message and reposted the screenshot of just the message without the numbers.

I have a photographic memory of every detailed conversation we have ever had, email, Skype message, etc. If you have a bad memory, that's a separate issue, but I can prove what I'm saying without circumstantial evidence or diversionary methods. I'm not sure how dumb you think I am or your supporters are. My one issue is now many since you have slandered me.

As per my comments on Heather, my opinion is as good as your opinion, but from the things that she has said and the things that I have in email from you, she seems quite mentally unstable, and I also know for a fact that she is essentially making the decisions to run LNM after bailing on you. She did to you what she did to Keith. She will do it again. If you can't see that she seems to be mentally unstable, something that Michael claimed in an email to me about her not feeding her cats, that will be your issue to deal with when she brings the entire network to the ground. You can create a façade and illusion, attempt to hijack hosts from other networks with faulty information, but no matter what you claim without proof, I can refute with proof. You can block me from everything, but people who want actual documentation will have access to it from what I have posted. I'm not at the least bit jealous of this woman, and if I was jealous of someone in the radio business for doing better than me perceptually and by numbers, I have many people that I'm friends with who I could be jealous of but I'm not.

In fact, I think you are jealous of me, my ability to disseminate information in a unique way on my show that takes away listeners from your network and now exposes the shady dealings, and the mostly, but not all by any means, mundane and drab programming you all provide - again, not everyone. I think you are jealous, or concerned, or threatened, by my age as you called me immature and a baby, when you all act in the manner you've projected on me.

As per the cursing, I even said it on my show, I have cursed before but recently in the last year there has been little to no cursing at all, especially not "fuck." In fact, I'm not sure I've ever used that word on air more than maybe five times. I'll give you a dozen over the last seven years if that does better for your argument, but it surely isn't every show or even a minority.

I've been nothing but cordial and attempted to give you all not only benefit of a doubt but courtesy in our messages about the initial issue.

This email is not threatening, complaining, or anything of the like, it is only an observation so you see that these are my feelings and intentions, and if you wish to take them out of context and make fun of me, while still saying I am one of the smartest people you have ever known, then that plays on you, not me.

Sincerely,
Ryan Gable

Anyone think Heather Wade should give up her low-brow and non-existent radio show and go back to sex phone operating? She has ripped people off, abandoned her fans and LNM and then is treated like a princess when she acts like a brat, and decides to return magically.

Michael Dean Surprised to see Ryan vent like this but like he said, we don't know the backstory. Can I suggest maybe Ryan contact Heather or vice-versa and hammer out the issues instead of this? It seems to hurt both shows to me to do this publicly...

Ryan Gable You all seem a bit delusional. I'd like to know how its not obvious this is a show that provides no quality content, but a rehashing of concepts we have heard for decades - which are fine - but with little new information, pure sensationalism and hype, carrot and stick, "now you seem me, now you don't," hosting, and the numerous people that support this show because of Art Bell, living through someone else, who seems to mimic his voice and attempt to recreate something that has passed. Meanwhile people produce real radio shows with quality content from research and data assessment, while providing truly unique concepts, and do not exploit and play on the trauma and emotion of those who grew up with Art or saw Art as someone special. Art inspired me but I don't rehash it every week as a radio host with another "remembering" show like dozens of other hosts do. I hope you all see the illogical and unreason and lack of trust that should exist for people like Heather, disappearing and re-appearing like a magic show. I've done radio for 7-8 years and been all over the radio world, and this is low quality, low-brow form of entertainment at its worst that people are emotionally triggered to support based on reliving some past experience. Otherwise, if you don't know there are real radio shows that don't do this, they provide legit research and information, not emotional sensationalism and exploitation. People like Heather, Jimmy Church and C2C. Playing on a desire to know about the unknown by claiming to plan running into Area 51! PR Stunt! She screwed over the LNM radio network and all of you as fans, who give her the benefit of the doubt, but you do not know what happens behind the scenes and how Heather truly feels.
